

Cynthia (Skarlatos–Gaddes) Kosciuczyk, BS, MBA / designer

Mission Statement: My focus is finding you the flooring that you will love for a lifetime.

Cynthia is passionate about making a home a personal sanctuary and great coffee. When you arrive in your home, the atmosphere should be welcoming, aesthetically pleasing from the floor on up! Her background and travels have given her a unique perspective. A lifelong artist, she has studied architecture, art and design in addition to her degrees in research and business which her compel to find the perfect solution for you. Experience in fine handmade textiles, picture framing, gallery art, Asian and Indian arts and imported furniture make her see the home as a composition to welcome and wow. She will transform your residence into one you would gladly exhibit. Since she is also an animal lover and hobby gourmet she understands a home is meant to be lived in!

Experience: 18 years in Flooring

Senior Fellow of the Academy of Oriental Rugs
Houzz Magazine Award for Customer Service (2015)

Rug Lovers Tour Instructor (2013-2015)

Free-lance writer for the Handmade Rug Industry

Frame Designer - Art Show Judge

MBA University of Phoenix, Phoenix, Arizona

Exhibitor in the Conception Art Show — NYC - (2016)

Table Designer Coronado Flower Show

Mesa Community College (Interior Design Program)

Del Mar Fairgrounds Home Shows Exhibitor (2008)

MFAH Houston, TX Museum Staff

Textile Quality Control LVF Ltd, Piraeus, Greece

WAM Worcester, MA Fine Arts

BS Biochemistry, WPI, Worcester, MA

